CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of TBK & Sons Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group"), I am pleased to present the annual results of the Group for the year ended 30 June 2025 (the "Financial Year").

The global economy faced a multifaceted and challenging environment, resulting from a combination of structural and cyclical influences. While the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has largely faded, the recovery process of the economy has been inconsistent across various regions. This ongoing recovery is complicated by escalated geopolitical uncertainties, consistent inflationary pressure, and weak productivity growth, all contributing to a challenging and unpredictable business landscape. In addition, the persistent weakness in the property market in the PRC has further weighed on economic activity. Collectively, these factors have adversely impacted the Group's overall performance. Moving forward, the Group will maintain vigilant oversight of evolving economic trends and will adapt its business strategies as needed in response to shifting market conditions, with a continued focus on improving business performance.

The Group is principally engaged in civil and structural works in Malaysia and the PRC and trading of oil and related products in the PRC. During the Financial Year, the Group's revenue recorded a decrease by approximately RM190.7 million or 66.2% from approximately RM288.1 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM97.4 million for the Financial Year. The revenue generated from civil and structural works in Malaysia and the PRC, as well as the trading of oil and related products in the PRC contributed approximately 99.6% (2024: 37.6%) and 0.4% (2024: 62.4%) respectively of the total revenue of the Group.

CIVIL AND STRUCTURAL WORKS IN MALAYSIA

Malaysia achieved a GDP growth of 5.1% in 2024, which surpassed the 3.6% recorded in 2023 and exceeds the earlier forecast of 4%-5%. The foreign reserve also increased from USD113.8bil in June 2024 to USD120.6bil in June 2025. The Malaysian Ringgit strengthened against US Dollar from approximately 4.72 in June 2024 to approximately 4.23 in June 2025.

Against a more favorable economic backdrop, the Group's civil and structural operations in Malaysia, including its products, services, revenue streams, and customer base, has remained relatively stable with a positive upside during the financial year. However, the Group still encountered headwinds in acquiring new projects, driven by rising costs and tightening profit margins. These challenges stem primarily from (i) lack and deferment of new projects and aggressive price competition during tendering; (ii) unrealistic pricing expectations imposed by project owners; and (iii) lack of experienced professionals in project planning, budgeting, and control. As a result of the shrinking market share, the tendering environment has become increasingly competitive. In response, the Group has adopted strategic pricing measures to preserve client relationships, sustain its market presence, and maximize resource efficiency. Overall, the revenue from civil and structural works in Malaysia increased from approximately RM56.0 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM81.2 million for the Financial Year, whereas the gross profit increased from approximately RM3.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM5.9 million for the Financial Year and the gross profit margin maintained at approximately 7.3% and 6.4% for the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024.

CIVIL AND STRUCTURAL WORKS IN THE PRC

The economic landscape in the PRC showed little improvement, largely because of persistent weakness in the property market. The Group's civil and structural operations in the PRC faced significant challenges, including fierce competition for contracts, extended payment terms, delays in progress certification, customer payment delays, and reduced profit margins. Projects undertaken in the PRC primarily involved construction, renovation, and labor provision for institutions such as colleges, the Sino-German Ecopark, the Economic and Trade Industrial Park, waterproofing works, and conference and exhibition centers. These initiatives, often commissioned by local government, were closely connected to social and community development but were subject to lengthy approval and settlement processes by project owners. In response, the Group has slowed negotiations for new projects to focus on completing those already in progress, and has prioritized efforts to collect trade receivables and contract assets to enhance liquidity and financial stability. The Group has as well strategically shifted its focus toward smaller-scale construction and renovation work projects to mitigate payment delays, as these projects typically require shorter completion timelines, resulting in faster progress certification of construction and renovation works. The Group continues to maintain proactive communication with customers, seeking improvements in both project timelines and payment processes, while closely monitoring ongoing business conditions.

The revenue from the civil and structural works in the PRC decreased from approximately RM52.5 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM15.8 million for the Financial Year, the gross profit decreased from approximately RM0.8 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM0.1 million for the Financial Year and the gross profit margin was approximately 0.4% and 1.5% for the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, respectively. In addition, the expected credit loss (the "ECL") on trade receivables and contract assets related to the civil and structural works in the PRC significantly increased by approximately RM5.7 million for the Financial Year compared to the previous year. This increase was primarily attributable to the customer payment delays, which directly impact the ECL calculation by reflecting the negative changes in credit risk associated with the outstanding trade receivables and contract assets as at 30 June 2025.

TRADING OF OIL AND RELATED PRODUCTS IN THE PRO

The PRC market continued to experience subdued sentiment, largely due to the downturn in the property sector and a reduction in infrastructure projects. This environment led to weaker demand for petroleum refining finished products and a corresponding decline in prices, which further reduced the need for heavy raw oil. The international oil market faced additional volatility as a result of the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war and the Israel-Palestine conflict. Fluctuations in crude oil prices became more pronounced, making it difficult for the Group to fully pass increased supplier costs onto customers. In response to these challenging market conditions and the significant capital required for international oil trading and new business ventures, the Group adopted a cautious and prudent approach to operations, seeking to maintain stability during a period of heightened uncertainty.

As a result, the Group has only entered one oil trading agency agreement during the Financial Year, and the revenue from the trading of oil and related products in the PRC recorded a significant decrease by 99.8% from approximately RM179.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM0.4 million for the Financial Year, the gross profit decreased by 33.3% from approximately RM0.6 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM0.4 million for the Financial Year. No gross profit (2024: approximately RM0.6 million) and gross profit margin (2024: approximately 0.3%) was presented, as the Group has been acted as an agent and recognised revenue on the net basis.

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's record a loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately RM28.3 million for the Financial Year (2024: RM32.7 million). The improvement of financial results for the Financial Year was mainly attributable to the combined effects of (i) the increase in the Group's gross profit despite of the significant decrease in revenue for the Financial Year compared to the previous year, (ii) the significant decrease in the net impairment loss on ECL on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables from approximately RM22.1 million for the financial year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM17.4 million for the Financial Year, and (iii) the significant decrease in administration expenses incurred by the Group for the Financial Year.

OUTLOOK

According to the World Bank's Global Economic Prospect Report for June 2025, the global growth is decelerating, marking one of the weakest five-year outlooks in decades, driven by persistent structural challenge including sluggish productivity gains, escalated geopolitical uncertainties, elevated financing costs and heightened trade tensions.

The Group anticipates that the financial year 2025/2026 will present similar challenges to those experienced in the previous year. The ongoing effects of heightened trade tensions, persistent geopolitical uncertainties, and high interest rates continue to pose significant headwinds to the broader economy. In both Malaysia and the PRC, difficulties in securing new projects and sustained pressure on profit margins have compounded the uncertainty. Furthermore, the sluggish property market and slowdown in infrastructure projects in the PRC are expected to continue weighing on the business landscape, adding further complexity to the Group's operating environment.

In this regard, the Group has been adopting a prudent and risk-conscious approach while actively looking for new projects in order to maintain its foothold in the industry besides exploring opportunities in both East and West Malaysia, as well as in neighbouring countries and the PRC. In addition, the Group will continue to explore and expand its customer base and source of supply to diversify the existing businesses. The Board will from time to time review its existing businesses and explore other business and investment opportunities, including but not limited to new energy related processing and logistic business, with a view to diversifying the business of the Group.

APPRECIATION

On behalf of the Board, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to our valued customers, business partners, subcontractors, suppliers, and shareholders of the Company for their support. I also express my appreciation to the management team and employees for their valuable contributions to the development of the Group.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Civil and Structural works in Malaysia

The Group is a civil and structural works contractor undertaking civil and structural works in the oil and gas industry in Malaysia with operational history since the 1970s. The Group is registered with a Construction Industry Development Board of Malaysia (the "CIDB") Grade G7 qualification in Category CE (Civil Engineering Construction), Category B (Building Construction) and Category ME (Mechanical and Electrical), which is the highest possible contractor licence under the CIDB and allows the Group to undertake civil and structural works of unlimited tender/contract value.

The Group's civil and structural works services generally involve (i) site preparation works such as earthwork, demolition works, and temporary facilities and infrastructure construction, including building temporary site offices, canteens, warehouses, etc.; (ii) civil works for process plants, involving reinforced concrete foundations, pipe supports, ponds, pits, underground and open drainage networks, paving work (including the use of gravel, concrete and asphalt) and related plant civil maintenance works; and (iii) building works (including the building of sub-station, field auxiliary rooms, workshop and storage buildings, etc.) in the oil and gas industry.

The following table sets forth the breakdown of the revenue by nature of works for the year ended 30 June 2025 and 2024:

Civil works projects

Revenue from civil works projects increased from approximately RM51.5 million for the year ended 30 June 2024 to approximately RM79.3 million for the Financial Year, representing an increase of approximately 54.0%.

During the Financial Year, the Group's administrative expenses were approximately RM18.3 million (2024: approximately RM20.8 million). The decrease was mainly attributed to the reduction of employees and relevant expenses. The administrative expenses of the Group primarily consist of short-term leases expenses, depreciation of property, plant and equipment and right-of-use assets and employee benefits expense and other expenses, in which the employee benefits expenses constituted the main component account for approximately 57.7% (2024: 63.7%) of administrative expenses.

Net impairment loss on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables

The Group had adopted the simplified approach to account for ECL as prescribed by IFRS9. Throughout the Financial Year, the Group consistently followed the same methodology for the statistical analysis and judgement for the ECL assessment. The Group also engaged an independent valuer to assess the key estimates, assumptions and calculations. In assessing the recoverability of the trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables, the management had performed a detailed analysis based on the independent valuation report, available customers' historical data, market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the reporting date. The ECLs amount is recognised as the impairment loss in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income.

During the Financial Year, the Group recognised the net impairment loss on ECL on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables of approximately RM17.4 million (2024: RM22.1 million). As at 30 June 2025, the provision for impairment loss on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables amounted to approximately RM34.8 million (2024: RM23.0 million), RM6.4 million (2024: RM3.0 million) and RM0.6 million (2024: RM0.9 million), respectively. The increase in ECL was primarily attributable to the customer payment delays, which directly impact the ECL calculation by reflecting the negative changes in credit risk associated with the outstanding trade receivables and contract assets as at 30 June 2025. The Group had gross trade receivables of approximately RM74.9 million as at 30 June 2025, of which approximately RM16.5 million were subsequently settled up to the date of this annual report. Further details of the credit risk and impairment assessment of ECL are set out in the Note 31(b) to the consolidated financial statements.

The Group actively monitors the status of its customers and conducts ongoing reviews of the business relationships. To recover overdue debts, the Group has established monitoring procedures and takes follow-up action where appropriate. The Group has been proactive in communicating with customers and seeking improvements in project timelines and payment processes. The Group has slowed down negotiations for new projects in the PRC to concentrate on completing existing projects on hand in the PRC and has focused on the collection process of trade receivables. The Group has maintained detailed records of communications with customers regarding overdue trade receivables and gathered feedback from customers to understand any issues that might be causing payment delays. At each reporting date, the Group assesses the recoverability of trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. As a result, the Directors consider the provision for impairment loss on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables as at 30 June 2025 to be justifiable.

Finance costs

Finance costs represented interest on bank overdrafts, bank and other borrowings and lease liabilities. For the year ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, the Group recorded finance costs of approximately RM0.5 million and RM0.4 million, respectively.

Income Tax Expense

The Group's income tax expense was approximately RM447,000 for the Financial Year (2024: RM77,000). The increase was mainly due to the increase in the Group's revenue and profit from civil and structural works in Malaysia during the Financial Year.

Loss and Loss per Share

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's record a loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately RM28.3 million for the Financial Year (2024: RM32.7 million). The improvement of financial results for the Financial Year was mainly attributable to (i) the increase in the Group's gross profit despite of the significant decrease in revenue for the Financial Year compared to the previous year, and (ii) the significant decrease in the net impairment on ECL on trade receivables, contract assets and other receivables. The loss per share for the Financial Year was approximately RM2.83 sen (2024: RM3.27 sen).

In April 2025, the Group has entered into a sale and purchase agreement with an independent third party to dispose of certain freehold lands in the state of Johor, Malaysia, for a total consideration of RM11,462,363.44 (equivalent to approximately HK$20,205,281.15). The freehold lands had been previously pledged to a Malaysian bank as security for the bank facilities granted to the Group, which was released for sale by such bank on the condition that RM1.0 million of the proceeds from the disposal would be pledged as security for the Group's banking facilities upon completion of the disposal.

The disposal constituted a discloseable transaction under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. Due to inadvertent oversight of the management, the Group failed to report and announce the disposal. The Pledged Shares represented 60% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this annual report.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

There are certain risks involved in the Group's business and operations. The Directors believe that some of the major risks may have a material adverse effect on the Group.

The followings are the key risk and uncertainties identified by the Group relating to our business, including but not limited to (i) the Group is exposed to concentration risk of heavy reliance on its largest and top five customers; (ii) as the Group from time to time engages subcontractors in works, the Group may bear responsibilities for any non-performance, delayed performance, sub-standard performance or non-compliance of its subcontractors; (iii) failure to secure new projects through tender process may materially and adversely affect the Group's sustainability and financial performance; (iv) the Group's historical revenue and profit margin may not be indicative of its financial performance in the future; and (v) a significant portion of the Group's revenue from civil and structural works in Malaysia was generated from PIPC projects, any decrease or loss of business relationship or failure to secure new projects associated with PIPC may adversely affect the Group's operations and financial performance.

1. The Group is exposed to concentration risk of heavy reliance on its largest and top five customers

A significant portion of the Group's revenue was derived from a small number of customers during the past years. For the years ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, the revenue generated from the Group's top five customers accounted for approximately 81.6% and 81.6% of its total revenue respectively, while the revenue generated from the largest customer accounted for approximately 53.7% and 48.8% of the Group's total revenue for the same year respectively. The Group may continue to have a concentration of customers in the future.

There is no assurance that the financial position of the Group's major customers will remain healthy in the future and that the Group will be able to receive payments from such customers on time. Any deterioration in the businesses of the Group's major customers could lead to delay and/or default in their payments to the Group. If the Group's major customers fail to make timely payments to the Group, the Group's cash flows and financial position may be materially and adversely affected.

2. As the Group from time to time engages subcontractors in works, the Group may bear responsibilities for any non-performance, delayed performance, sub-standard performance or non-compliance of its subcontractors

As common in the civil and structural works industry, the Group engages subcontractors to undertake some of the project works. Subcontracting may expose the Group to risks associated with non-performance, delayed performance or sub-standard performance by the subcontractors, in the event of subcontracting works to subcontractors. The Group is ultimately responsible to the customers for the works completed by the subcontractors. As a result, the Group may experience deterioration in the quality or delivery of the works, incur additional costs due to managing and supervising subcontractors' performance and remedying the delays, defects or substandard materials, defective equipment, services or supplies caused by the subcontractors. The Group also has limited control over the availability of its subcontractors' labour force and may not be able to find suitable subcontractor in a timely manner. Such events could impact the profitability, financial performance and reputation, or result in litigation or damage claims of the Group.

If the subcontractors violate any laws, rules or regulations in relation to health, safety and environmental matters, the Group may expose itself as liable to prosecutions by relevant authorities, and may become liable to claims for losses and damages if such violations cause any personal injuries or death or damage to properties. In the event that there is any violation, whether substantial or minor in nature, of any laws, rules or regulations, occurred at sites for which the Group is responsible, the operations and hence the financial position of the Group may be adversely affected.

3. Failure to secure new projects through tender process may materially and adversely affect the Group's sustainability and financial performance

It is customary in the civil and structural works industry that civil and structural works projects are awarded to contractors on a project-by-project basis through a tender process where the tenders of all bidders will be considered and assessed by the project awarding company.

In line with the industry practice, the Group's projects are primarily secured through a tender process. The Group's ability to secure new projects from its existing or new customers is uncertain and is largely dependent on, among others, how favourable terms are compared to those offered by other contractors who have also submitted their tenders. Notwithstanding the Group's past relationship and work experience with its existing customers, the final outcome of each tender process is beyond the Group's control. There is also no guarantee that the Group's existing customers will award new projects to the Group.

The Group cannot assure that it will be able to secure future business from its existing customers, or that the Group will be able to develop business relationships with new customers. The Group may be unable to forecast the number of projects it may secure in the future. The Group's revenue may fluctuate from period to period depending on the actual volume of its business. If the Group fails to secure projects in the tender process, the Group's business, results of operations, sustainability and prospects would be materially and adversely affected.

4. The Group's historical revenue and profit margin may not be indicative of its financial performance in the future

The Group's future performance will depend on, among other things, its ability to secure new projects and control its costs and will be subject to the risks set out in this section. Therefore, the Group's historical performance does not have any positive implication or may not necessarily reflect the Group's financial performance in the future. In addition, the Group's profit margin may fluctuate from project to project due to a number of factors, such as quantity of work orders received from customers, the accuracy of the Group's estimate of costs when determining the tender price, the complexity, duration and size of the project, subcontracting charges and the pricing strategy. There is no guarantee that the Group will be able to command a similar level of gross profit margin in the future as some of the factors affecting the Group's profitability such as quantity of work orders received from customers are beyond the Group's control. Nor can the Group assure you that it will be able to secure sufficient projects of favourable size and quantity, maintain its current revenue and profit levels in the future or attain growth rates similar to those achieved by it during the past years.

Furthermore, the Group's future performance will also depend on its capacity to secure oil and related products while effectively managing costs. Given the inherent volatility of oil prices due to geopolitical tensions, supply-demand dynamics, and global economic conditions, there is no assurance that the Group will maintain the same level of revenue, gross profit and gross profit margin. Various factors mentioned may impact the Group's overall performance and profitability.

5. A significant portion of the Group's revenue from civil and structural works in Malaysia was generated from PIPC projects, any decrease or loss of business relationship or failure to secure new projects associated with PIPC may adversely affect the Group's operations and financial performance

The Group generated a significant portion of revenue from PIPC projects which are secured from a number of project owners and/or engineering, procurement, commissioning and contracting ("EPCC") contractors during the past years.

The Group does not enter into any long-term service agreement with project owners and/or EPCC contractors of PIPC projects and the Group's services are provided on a project-by-project basis. As such, there is no assurance that the project owners and/or EPCC contractors of PIPC projects will continue to retain the Group upon completion of the existing projects or that they will maintain the current level of business with the Group or engage the Group in the future. If there is a significant decrease in number of projects or size of projects in terms of contract value awarded by project owners and/or EPCC contractors of PIPC projects, and if the Group is unable to obtain sufficient projects with comparable size as replacement, the business, results of operations and financial condition of the Group may be materially and adversely affected.

Foreign Currency Risk

The Group operates mainly in Malaysia, fluctuations in the Malaysian ringgit's value against other currencies will create foreign currency translation gains or losses and may have an adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Any imposition, variation or removal of foreign exchange controls may adversely affect the value, translated or converted into USD, RMB or HK$, of the Group's net assets, earnings or any declared dividends. Consequently, this may adversely affect the Group's ability to pay dividends or satisfy other foreign exchange requirements.

The management will monitor foreign currency exposure of the Group and will consider undertaking foreign exchange hedging activities to reduce the impact of foreign exchange rate movements on the Group's operating results. The Group had not used any derivative financial instrument for the Financial Year.

Employees and Remuneration Policy

As at 30 June 2025, the Group had 461 (2024: 513) employees (including foreign labour). The Group's employees are invaluable assets of the Group and it is dedicated to managing human capital. The Directors believe that continuous staff training and development will not only improve the Group's staff's performance, but will also enhance loyalty and staff morale. For its new recruits, the Group offers induction training courses which cover practical and technical aspects of their works, together with its corporate culture and core value. Remuneration packages the Group's offer to its staff includes basic salary, discretionary bonuses and allowance. For the Financial Year, the Group's employee cost, including Directors' emoluments, were approximately RM26.7 million (2024: RM30.0 million). The Directors review the performance of the Group's employees on a periodical basis in order to determine salary adjustment and promotions and keep the Group's remuneration package competitive.

CHANGE IN USE OF PROCEEDS

As disclosed in the announcement and 2024 annual report dated 27 September 2024, the Unutilised Net Proceeds amounted to approximately HK$12 million as at 30 June 2024. After careful consideration and detailed evaluation of the Group's operations and business strategies, the Board has resolved to allocate the Unutilised Net Proceeds, including (i) approximately HK$6.2 million for financing the upfront expenditures of new projects and (ii) approximately HK$5.8 million for future investment opportunities of the Group, to be used as general working capital of the Group, which are originally scheduled to be fully utilized by 30 June 2025. The remaining balance as at 30 June 2025 will be carried forward and the date of fully utilization is extended to 30 June 2026.

REASONS FOR CHANGE IN USE OF PROCEEDS

Since the global economic activities are still reeling from the aftermath of the pandemic, the situation has been further exacerbated by geopolitical tensions, inflationary pressures and high interest rates, resulting in a complex and volatile business environment. Meanwhile, the sluggish property market in the PRC continues to impact economic activities. These factors have adversely affect the overall performance of the Group. In view of the above, the Group has adopted a cautious and prudent approach in its operation and investment strategies. The Board evaluates the trends in the economic and business environment in Malaysia and the PRC to determine the most effective and efficient use of the Unutilised Net Proceeds.

The Board considers that the change in use of the Unutilised Net Proceeds will allow the Group to deploy its financial resources more effectively and is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and will not have any material adverse effect on the existing business and operations of the Group.

The Group has designed and implemented risk management policies to address these potential risks (including ESG risks) identified in relation to the Group's business. The Group's risk management system sets out procedures to identify, analyse, assess, mitigate and monitor any potential risks. The executive Directors are responsible for overseeing the overall risk management system and each department carries out their own risk management identification exercise and proposes risk response plan according to the overall risk assessment program. Each department of the Group is required to set up appropriate risk management strategies based on the risk identified and their proposed risk response plan and is responsible for the implementation and supervision. For material deficiency or risks identified, the relevant department should report the situation to the Board for further investigation, internal control review and enhancement and supervision. Additionally, the Board should consider the changes in the nature and extent of significant risks (including ESG risks) since the last annual review and the Group's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment.

The Group has adopted the following corporate governance and internal control measures to monitor the ongoing implementation of its risk management policies and corporate governance measures. TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF TBK & SONS HOLDINGS LIMITED

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of TBK & Sons Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 66 to 148, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 June 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 30 June 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements" section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's "Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants" (the "Code"), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter

Revenue recognition of civil and structural works contracts

We identified the recognition of revenue from construction contracts as a key audit matter due to the significance of the amount to the consolidated financial statements as a whole and the degree of judgement and estimation uncertainty involved.

For the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group's revenue from civil and structural works amounted to approximately RM97 millions.

The Group's revenue from civil and structural works is recognised over time using the output method. This approach is based on direct measurements of the value of services delivered or surveys of performance completed to date relative to the remaining contracts obligations. Revenue is determined through surveys of completed work, supported by payment certificates from architects, surveyors, or customer-appointed representatives. Management regularly assesses the value of completed construction work, including estimates for unverified work at the end of each reporting period. These estimates are derived from surveys conducted by internal technicians and are adjusted based on subsequent certifications or confirmations from customers. Management reviews the progress of the contracts and revises the estimates of contract revenue, contract costs and variation orders for each construction contract to determine whether the construction contract is an onerous contract based on the most current budget with reference to the overall contract consideration.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our audit procedures in relation to the management's assessment on revenue recognition of civil and structural works contracts:

- Understood the Group's processes and controls over recognition of revenue from construction contracts and budget estimation, and evaluated the design and implementation and tested the operating effectiveness of the controls;
- Assessed the Group's revenue recognition to determine they are in compliance with IFRS 15, on a sample basis, including in identifying the contract and performance obligations and determining the transaction price;
- Assessed the reasonableness of the gross profit margin of major projects and obtained management's explanation for significant fluctuations of gross profit margin;
- Agreed the total budgeted contract revenue to the construction contracts and variation orders, if any, or other form of agreements or other correspondences, and discussed with the management of the Group to evaluate the reasonableness of their estimated total budgeted contract revenue, on a sample basis;
- Verified whether value of work has been reasonably recognised as contract revenue, with reference to the certificates from surveyors appointed by the customers or payment applications from the in-house surveyors.
 Confirmations of some projects were received to ensure the accuracy of completion stage;
- Assessed the management's estimate of the impact to revenue arising from scope changes made to the original contracts, claim and disputes with reference to supporting documents including variation orders and correspondence among the Group and customers.

Key audit matter

Impairment assessment of trade receivables and contract assets under Expected Credit Loss ("ECL") model

As at 30 June 2025, the carrying amount of trade receivables and contract assets, which were subject to impairment assessment under ECL model, were amounted to approximately RM40,138,000 and RM35,214,000, net of allowance for credit losses of approximately RM34,808,000 and RM6,429,000, respectively.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment is done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables and contract assets. Except for trade receivables which the management of the Group considered as high uncertainty of recovery, which are assessed for impairment individually, the remaining trade receivables are grouped under a provision matrix based on shared credit risk characteristics and the historical observed default rates adjusted by forward looking estimates.

We consider impairment assessment of trade receivables and contract assets as a key audit matter because of the significance to the Group's consolidated financial statements as a whole and the assessment on ECLs involved significant judgements and estimates by management.

How our audit addressed the key audit matter

Our audit procedures in relation to the management's assessment on impairment assessment of trade receivables and contract assets:

- Understood key controls on how the management estimates the ECL allowance on trade receivables and contract assets;
- Evaluated the competence, capabilities, independence and objectivity of the independent professional valuer engaged by the management, and the scope of the valuer's work;
- Assessed the reasonableness and appropriateness of the methodologies, inputs and estimates used to assess the ECLs rates for trade receivables and contract assets;
- Evaluated the reasonableness of management assessment on ECL by challenging the assumptions, including both historical and forward-looking information used to determine the ECL:
- Obtained aged analysis of trade receivables and contract assets and tested the accuracy of information used by management by comparing individual items in the analysis with relevant supporting documents, on a sample basis;
- Discussed with the management of the Group for their evaluation of the impact of disputes with customers and unforeseen delay of construction and any affairs that have impact on credit risk of trade receivables and contract assets and checked to relevant correspondences and documents to assess the reasonableness of management's evaluation.

OTHER MATTER

The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended 30 June 2024, were audited by another auditor who expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements on 27 September 2024.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company (the "Directors") are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the IASB and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the Directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the Directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS OF IFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Group has applied the following amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards issued by International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the Group's annual period beginning on 1 July 2024 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("IAS") 1

Amendments to IFRS 16
Amendments to IAS 7 and IFRS 7

Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current ("2020 Amendments"), Non-current Liabilities with Covenants ("2022 Amendments")

Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback

Supplier Finance Arrangements

Except as described below, the application of the amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards in the current year has had no material impact on the Group's financial positions and performance for the current and prior years and/or disclosures set out in these consolidated financial statements.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS OF IFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS (Continued)

Amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards that are mandatorily effective for the current year (Continued)

Impacts on application of Amendments to IAS 1 Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and Amendments to IAS 1 Non-Current Liabilities with Covenants (the "2022 Amendments")

The Group has applied the amendments for the first time in the current year. The 2020 Amendments provide clarification and additional guidance on the assessment of right to defer settlement for at least twelve months from reporting date for classification of liabilities as current or non-current, which:

- specify that the classification of liabilities as current or non-current should be based on rights that are in existence at the end of the reporting period. Specifically, the classification should not be affected by management intentions or expectations to settle the liability within 12 months.
- clarify that the settlement of a liability can be a transfer of cash, goods or services, or the entity's own equity instruments to the counterparty. If a liability has terms that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the transfer of the entity's own equity instruments, these terms do not affect its classification as current or non-current only if the entity recognises the option separately as an equity instrument applying IAS 32 Financial Instruments: Presentation.

For rights to defer settlement for at least twelve months from reporting date which are conditional on the compliance with covenants, the 2022 Amendments specifically clarify that only covenants that an entity is required to comply with on or before the end of the reporting period affect the entity's right to defer settlement of a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting date, even if compliance with the covenant is assessed only after the reporting date. The 2022 Amendments also specify that covenants with which an entity must comply after the reporting date (i.e. future covenants) do not affect the classification of a liability as current or non-current at the reporting date. However, if the entity's right to defer settlement of a liability is subject to the entity complying with covenants within twelve months after the reporting period, an entity discloses information that enables users of financial statements to understand the risk of the liabilities becoming repayable within twelve months after the reporting period. This would include information about the covenants, the carrying amount of related liabilities and facts and circumstances, if any, that indicate that the entity may have difficulties complying with the covenants.

In accordance with the transition provision, the Group has applied the new accounting policy to the classification of liability as current or non-current retrospectively. The application of the amendments in the current year had no material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

- Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027.

Except for the new and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards mentioned below, the Directors anticipate that the application of all other new and amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards will have no impact on the consolidated financial statements in the foreseeable future.

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments

The amendments to IFRS 9 clarify the recognition and derecognition for financial asset and financial liability and add an exception which permits an entity to deem a financial liability to be discharged before the settlement date if it is settled in cash using an electronic payment system if, and only if certain conditions are met.

The amendments also provide guidance on the assessment of whether the contractual cash flows of a financial asset are consistent with a basic lending arrangement. The amendments specify that an entity should focus on what an entity is being compensated for rather than the compensation amount. Contractual cash flows are inconsistent with a basic lending arrangement if they are indexed to a variable that is not a basic lending risk or cost. The amendments state that, in some cases, a contingent feature may give rise to contractual cash flows that are consistent with a basic lending arrangement both before and after the change in contractual cash flows, but the nature of the contingent event itself does not relate directly to changes in basic lending risks and costs. Furthermore, the description of the term "non-recourse" is enhanced and the characteristics of "contractually linked instruments" are clarified in the amendments.

New and Amendments to IFRS Accounting Standards in issue but are not yet effective (Continued)

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments (Continued)

The disclosure requirements in IFRS 7 in respect of investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income are amended. In particular, entities are required to disclose the fair value gain or loss presented in other comprehensive income during the period, showing separately those related to investments derecognised during the reporting period and those related to investments held at the end of the reporting period. An entity is also required to disclose any transfers of the cumulative gain or loss within equity related to the investments derecognised during the reporting period. In addition, the amendments introduce the requirements of qualitative and quantitative disclosure of contractual terms that could affect the contractual cash flow based on a contingent even not directly relating to basic lending risks and cost.

The amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026, with early application permitted. The application of the amendments is not expected to have significant impact on the financial position and performance of the Group.

IFRS 18 - Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements, which sets out requirements on presentation and disclosures in financial statements, will replace IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. This new IFRS Accounting Standard, while carrying forward many of the requirements in IAS 1, introduces new requirements to present specified categories and defined subtotals in the statement of profit or loss; provide disclosures on management-defined performance measures in the notes to the financial statements and improve aggregation and disaggregation of information to be disclosed in the financial statements. In addition, some IAS 1 paragraphs have been moved to IAS 8 and IFRS 7. Minor amendments to IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows and IAS 33 Earnings per Share are also made.

IFRS 18, and amendments to other standards, will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027, with early application permitted. The application of the new standard is expected to affect the presentation of the statement of profit or loss and disclosures in the future financial statements. The Group is in the process of assessing the detailed impact of IFRS 18 on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATAMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

3.1 Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the IASB. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange ("Listing Rules") and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATAMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

3.2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY

(a) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. Inter-company transactions and balances between group companies together with unrealised profits are eliminated in full in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of impairment on the asset transferred, in which case the loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Subsequent to acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interests that represent present ownership interests in the subsidiary is the amount of those interests at initial recognition plus such non-controlling interests' share of subsequent changes in equity. Total comprehensive income is attributed to such non-controlling interests even if this results in those non-controlling interests having a deficit balance

(b) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost of property, plant and equipment includes its purchase price and the costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised.

Freehold land has an unlimited useful life and is not depreciated and is measured at cost less subsequent accumulated impairment losses. Other property, plant and equipment are depreciated so as to write off their cost net of expected residual value over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. The useful lives, residual value and depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period. The principal annual depreciation rates are as follows:

Depreciation has been provided on certain freehold land as the Group has not been able to segregate the cost of the building from the cost of the related freehold land. The Directors are of the opinion that the depreciation of the freehold land has no material effect on the financial statements of the Group.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sale proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATAMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

3.2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY (Continued)

(c) Leasing

The Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under IFRS 16 at inception of the contract. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

All leases (irrespective of whether they are operating leases or finance leases) are required to be capitalised in the consolidated statement of financial position as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, but accounting policy choices exist for an entity to choose not to capitalise (i) leases which are short-term leases and/or (ii) leases for which the underlying asset is of low-value. The Group has elected not to recognise right-of-use assets and lease liabilities for low-value assets and leases for which at the commencement date have a lease term less than 12 months and does not contain a purchase option. The lease payments associated with those leases have been expensed on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

The Group applies practical expedient not to separate non-lease component, and instead account for the lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component.

Right-of-use asset

The right-of-use asset should be recognised at cost and would comprise: (i) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability (see below for the accounting policy to account for lease liability); (ii) any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received; (iii) any initial direct costs incurred by the lessee; and (iv) an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories. Under the cost model, the Group measures the right-of-use assets at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

The Group presents right-of-use assets in "property, plant and equipment", the same line item within which the corresponding underlying assets would be presented if they were owned.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under IFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATAMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

The lease liability is recognised at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the date of commencement of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined which is generally the case at the Group, the Group uses the lessee's incremental borrowing rate.

The following payments for the right to use the underlying asset during the lease term that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease are considered to be lease payments: (i) fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable; (ii) variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at commencement date; (iii) amounts expected to be payable by the lessee under residual value guarantees; (iv) the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option and (v) payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease.

Subsequent to the commencement date, the Group measures the lease liability by: (i) increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability; (ii) reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made; and (iii) remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications, e.g., a change in future lease payments arising from change in an index or rate, a change in the lease term, a change in the in substance fixed lease payments or a change in assessment to purchase the underlying asset.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

(d) Non-current assets held for sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sales transaction rather than through continuing use. For this to be the case, the asset must be available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for the sale of such assets and its sale must be highly probable. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

Non-current assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair values less costs to sell.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATAMENTS AND MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION (Continued)

3.2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY (Continued)

(e) Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when a group entity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments. Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with IFRS 15.

Interest/dividend income which are derived from the Group's ordinary course of business are presented as revenue.

(i) Financial assets

A financial asset (unless it is a trade receivable without a significant financing component) is initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price.

The financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit-impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and it does not retain control of the financial asset. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds received.

- (e) Financial instruments (Continued)

Impairment of financial assets

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss ("ECL") model on financial assets (including trade and other receivables, amount due from an associate, pledged time deposits, restricted time deposits, bank balances and contract assets) which are subject to impairment assessment under IFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses ("ECLs") on trade receivables, contract assets and other financial assets measured at amortised cost.

Measurement of ECLs

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical credit loss experience and forward looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive). The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the assets' original effective interest rate.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

For trade receivables and contract assets, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by IFRS 9, which requires lifetime ECLs to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

For other financial assets at amortised cost, the ECLs is measured as either 12-month ECLs or lifetime ECLs, depending on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If a significant increase in credit risk of a receivable has occurred since initial recognition, impairment is measured as lifetime ECLs. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECL, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information and analysis, based on the Group's historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information.

Lifetime ECLs are the ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument. The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk. In contrast, 12-month ECL ("12m ECL") represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessments are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

Definition of default

The Group considers the following as constituting an event of default for internal credit risk management purposes as historical experience indicates that receivables that meet either of the following criteria are generally not recoverable.

- when there is a breach of financial covenants by the counterparty; or
- information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when a financial asset is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Credit-impaired financial assets

At each reporting date, the Group assesses on a forward-looking basis whether financial assets carried at amortised cost are credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable data:

- significant financial difficulty of the borrower or issuer;
- a breach of contract such as a default or past due event;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Presentation of allowance for ECL in the consolidated statement of financial position

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets.

Write-off

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. Any subsequent recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

(ii) Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Financial liabilities

The Group's financial liabilities, other than dividend payable resulting from distribution of non-cash assets to shareholders, are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by a group entity are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

(f) Revenue recognition

The Group recognises revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied, i.e. when "control" of the goods or services underlying the particular performance obligation is transferred to the customer.

A performance obligation represents a good or service (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct or a series of distinct goods or services that are substantially the same.

Control is transferred over time and revenue is recognised over time by reference to the progress towards complete satisfaction of the relevant performance obligation if one of the following criteria is met:

- the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the Group performs; or
- the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

Otherwise, revenue is recognised at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the distinct good or service.

(f) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Principal versus agent

When another party is involved in providing goods or services to a customer, the Group determines whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the specified goods or services itself (i.e. the Group is a principal) or to arrange for those goods or services to be provided by the other party (i.e. the Group is an agent).

The Group is a principal as it controls the specified oil and related products before those goods is transferred to a customer.

The Group is an agent if its performance obligation is to arrange for the provision of the specified good or service by another party. In this case, the Group does not control the specified good or service provided by another party before that good or service is transferred to the customer. When the Group acts as an agent, it recognises revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the specified goods or services to be provided by the other party.

Contract assets and liabilities

A contract asset represents the Group's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Group has transferred to a customer that is not yet unconditional. It is assessed for impairment in accordance with IFRS 9. In contrast, a receivable represents the Group's unconditional right to consideration, i.e. only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

A contract asset and a contract liability relating to the same contract are accounted for and presented on a net basis.

Over time revenue recognition: measurement of progress towards complete satisfaction of a performance obligation

Output method

The progress towards complete satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured based on output method, which is to recognise revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value of the goods or services transferred to the customer to date relative to the remaining goods or services promised under the contract, that best depict the Group's performance in transferring control of goods or services.

As a practical expedient, if the Group has a right to consideration in an amount that corresponds directly with the value of the Group's performance completed to date, the Group recognises revenue in the amount to which the Group has the right to invoice.

Onerous contracts

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Group has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

(g) Income taxes

Income taxes comprise current tax and deferred tax. Current tax is based on the profit or loss from ordinary activities adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowable for income tax purposes and is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the corresponding amounts used for tax purposes. Except for goodwill not deductible for tax purposes and initial recognition of assets and liabilities that are not part of the business combination which affect neither accounting nor taxable profits and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future, deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised, provided that the deductible temporary differences do not arise from initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction other than in a business combination that affects neither taxable profit nor the accounting profit and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates appropriate to the expected manner in which the carrying amount of the asset or liability is realised or settled and that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of reporting period, and reflects any uncertainty related to income taxes.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income tax levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the assets to be recovered.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

(h) Foreign currency

Transactions entered into by group entities in currencies other than the currency of the primary economic environment in which they operate (the "functional currency") are recorded at the rates ruling when the transactions occur. Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities are translated at the rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the translation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

On preparing consolidated financial statements, the results of foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. RM) at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during the period, in which case, the rates approximating to those ruling when the transactions took place are used. All assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated at the rate ruling at the end of reporting period. Exchange differences arising on the translation are recognised directly in other comprehensive income and accumulated as exchange translation reserve within equity. Exchange differences recognised in profit or loss of group entities' separate financial statements on the translation of long-term monetary items forming part of the Group's net investment in the foreign operation concerned are reclassified to the exchange translation reserve.

(i) Employee benefits

(i) Short term employee benefits

Short term employee benefits are employee benefits that are expected to be settled wholly before twelve months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employees render the related services. Short term employee benefits are recognised in the year when the employees render the related services.

(ii) Defined contribution retirement plans

The Company's subsidiaries incorporated in Malaysia make contributions to: (i) statutory pension schemes which are defined contribution retirement plans at statutory fixed rates gazetted by Malaysia from time to time; and (ii) Social Security Organisation which requires the entity to contribute certain percentage of its payroll costs to the organisation. The contributions are recognised as a liability after deducting any contributions already paid and as an expense in the period in which the employees render their services.

The Group operates a defined contribution Mandatory Provident Fund retirement benefits scheme (the "MPF Scheme") under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance in Hong Kong for those employees who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees' basic salaries to the maximum mandatory contributions as required by the MPF Scheme. The assets of the MPF Scheme are held separately from those of the Group in an independently administered fund. The Group's employer contributions vest fully with the employees when contributed into the MPF Scheme. Contributions to MPF Scheme are recognised as an expense in profit or loss when the services are rendered by the employees.

Employees of the group entity operate in the PRC are required to participate in a central pension scheme operated by the local municipal government. Such entity is required to contribute certain percentages of its payroll costs to the central pension scheme. The contributions are charged to profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

(j) Impairment of assets (other than financial assets)

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of the following assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment (including right-of-use assets)
- intangible assets
- interest in an associate

The recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, and intangible assets are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant cash-generating unit when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units. Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use.

Value-in-use is based on the estimated future cash flows expected to be derived from the asset, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset or cash generating unit.

If the recoverable amount (i.e. the greater of the fair value less costs of disposal and value in use) of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss immediately.

(k) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

- (a) cash, which comprises of cash on hand and demand deposits, excluding bank balances that are subject to regulatory restrictions that result in such balances no longer meeting the definition of cash; and
- (b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term (generally with original maturity of three months or less), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to a known amount of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management. Such overdrafts are presented as short-term borrowings in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(I) Intangible assets

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation for intangible assets with finite useful lives is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

(m) Share-based payment

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

Share options granted to employees

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date

The fair value of the equity-settled share-based payments determined at the grant date without taking into consideration all non-market vesting conditions is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity (share option reserve). At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest based on assessment of all relevant non-market vesting conditions. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to the share option reserve. For share options that rest immediately at the date of grant, the fair value of the share options granted is expensed immediately to profit or loss.

When share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share-based payments reserve will be transferred to share premium. When the share options are forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to retained profits.

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are describled in Note 3.2 the Directors are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

(a) Critical judgement in applying the Group's accounting policies

The following is the critical judgement, apart from those involving estimations (see below), that management has made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

(i) Principal versus agent consideration

The Group determines whether the nature of its promise is a performance obligation to provide the oil and related products itself (i.e., the Group is a principal) or to arrange for the oil and related products to be provided by the other party (i.e., the Group is an agent) in accordance with IFRS 15 requirements. When the Group acts as an agent, it recognises revenue in the amount of any fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging for the oil and related products to be provided by the other party. The Group's management determined that the Group is acting as the principal or agent for the trading transactions taking into consideration the nature of the promise.

The Group is a principal if it is primarily responsible for fulfilling the promise to provide the oil and related products, the Group has inventory risk and discretion in establishing the price for the oil and related products.

The Group is a agent if the Group bears no inventory risk and has to obtain the consent from customer before entering into the corresponding supplier contract.

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

In addition to the estimates and underlying assumptions mentioned elsewhere in the consolidated financial statements, the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

(i) Revenue from civil and structural works contracts

Management measures the value of completed construction work based on output method, which is to recognise revenue on the basis of measurement of the value of services transferred to the customers. Management's estimate of the progress of construction works requires significant judgement and has a significant impact on the amount and timing of revenue recognised.

For the year ended 30 June 2025

4. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

Management has periodically measured the value of the construction work completed for each construction project based on certification performed by architects, surveyors or other representatives appointed by the customers and estimated the value of work which is completed but yet to be certified at each of the end of reporting period. Management estimated the value of work which is completed but yet to be certified based on surveys carried out by internal technicians and revisited with reference to certification subsequently performed by architects, surveyors or other representatives appointed by the customers or confirmations received from the customers. The Group regularly reviews and revises the estimation of construction contract progresses whenever there is any change in circumstances.

(ii) Impairment of trade receivables and contract assets

The Group makes ECL allowances on trade receivables and contract assets based on assumptions about risk of default and expected loss rates. The Group used judgment in making these assumptions and selecting inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at each reporting date.

Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying amount of trade receivables and contract assets and provision for impairment in the periods in which such estimate has been changed.

As at 30 June 2025, the gross carrying amount of trade receivables and contract assets within the scope of the ECL model amounted to RM74,946,000 (2024: RM76,945,000) and RM41,643,000 (2024: RM52,963,000), respectively. Details of the ECL allowance on trade receivables and contract assets are set out in Note 31(b).

(iii) Income tax and deferred tax

The Group is principally subject to Malaysian corporate income tax. Significant judgement is required on the interpretation of tax laws and legislations during the estimation of the provision for income tax. There are transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities for tax based on estimates of assessment of the tax liability due. Where the final tax outcome is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences would impact the income tax and deferred income tax provisions, where applicable, in the period in which such determination is made.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits would be available against which the deductible temporary differences could be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that could be recognised, based on the likely timing and extent of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies.

Provision of civil and structural works (including site preparation works projects, civil works projects, building works projects, and construction and renovation works projects)

The Group provides civil and structural works based on contracts entered with customers before the commencement of the projects. Under the terms of the contracts, the civil and structural works performed by the Group creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced. The civil and structural works provide a distinct and significant integration contract work which are considered a single performance obligation with regard to the contracts. Revenue from provision of civil and structural works is recognised over time using output method, i.e. based on surveys of civil and structural works completed by the Group to date with reference to payment certificates issued by architects, surveyors or other representatives appointed by the customer which the Directors consider that output method would faithfully depict the Group's performance towards complete satisfaction of these performance obligations. The period of civil and structural works varies from 1 to 3 years.

The Group did not hold any collateral as securities as at 30 June 2025 and 2024.

During the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group factoring part of its trade receivables owed by a debtor of RM295,000 (2024: RM1,300,000) with full recourse to a financial institution. In the event of default by the debtor, the Group is obligated to pay the financial institution the amount in default. Interest is charged at 4% (2024: 4%) on the proceeds received from the financial institution until the date the debtor repay or default. The Group is therefore exposed to the risks of credit losses and late payment in respect of the factoring debts.

The factoring transaction does not meet the requirements for de-recognition of financial assets as the Group retains substantially all risks and rewards of ownership of the factoring trade receivables. As at 30 June 2025, the trade receivables of RM295,000 (2024: RM1,300,000) continue to be recognised in the Group's consolidated financial statements even though they have been legally transferred to the financial institution. The carrying amount of the transferred assets and their associated liabilities approximates their fair value.

Details of the impairment assessment of trade and other receivables are set out in Note 31(b).

Note:

(a) On 19 June 2024, a subsidiary, Liangao Shandong, entered into a procurement contract with Seller A for the purchase of fuel oil, with an estimated total consideration of Renminbi ("RMB") 228,683,000 (equivalent to RM134,923,000). The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to pledged time deposits (see Note 19), fixed-rate bank and other borrowings (see Note 24 for details of these borrowings) and lease liabilities (see Note 22 for details). The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to variable-rate bank balances (see Note 19 for details), variable-rate bank borrowings (see Note 24 for details). Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates at the end of the reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 50 basis points increase or decrease in interest rate for variable-rate bank borrowings are used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates. Bank balances are excluded from sensitivity analysis as the management considers that the exposure of cash flow interest rate risk arising from variable-rate bank balances is insignificant.

If interest rates had been 50 basis points higher/lower for variable-rate bank borrowings and all other variables were held constant, the post-tax loss for the year ended 30 June 2025 would decrease/increase by approximately RM8,000/RM8,000 (2024: RM9,000/RM9,000).

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that the Group's counterparties default on their contractual obligations resulting in financial losses to the Group. The Group's credit risk exposures are primarily attributable to trade and other receivables, contract assets, amount due from an associate and bank balances. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancements to cover its credit risks associated with its financial assets.

The Group performed impairment assessment for financial assets under ECL model. Information about the Group's credit risk management, maximum credit risk exposures and the related impairment assessment are summarised as below:

Trade receivables and contract assets

At the end of each reporting period, the Group has concentration of credit risk as 26.9% (2024: 23.1%) and 78.7% (2024: 71.8%) of the Group's total trade receivables was due from the Group's top customer and the top five customers, respectively.

The Group measures the loss allowance for trade receivables and contract assets at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. Except for balances are subject to individual evaluation, which are assessed for impairment individually, the ECLs on remaining trade receivables and contract assets are estimated using a provision matrix by reference to past default experience of the debtor, current market condition in relation to each debtor's exposure. The historical rates are adjusted to reflect current and forward-looking macroeconomic factors affecting the customer's ability to settle the amount outstanding. At each reporting date, the historical default rates are updated and changes in the forward-looking estimates are analysed.

The Group carried out monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up actions has been taken to recover those overdue debts. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. Credit evaluations of its customers' financial position and condition are performed on each major customer periodically. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. In addition, the Group reviews the recoverability of these receivables at the end of each reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts.

In addition, the Group performs impairment assessment under ECL model on trade receivables with significant balances and credit-impaired individually and/or collectively. Except for items that are subject to individual evaluation, which are assessed for impairment individually, the remaining trade receivables and contract assets are grouped based on aging of outstanding balances. Impairment losses, net of reversal, of approximately RM14,075,000 (2024: RM19,621,000) and approximately RM3,695,000 (2024: RM1,623,000) are recognised in respect of trade receivables and contract assets during the year. Details of the quantitative disclosures are set out below in this note.

Other receivables

The Group's other receivables include other receivables in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group considers that other receivables, excluded those credit-impaired, have low credit risk based on the borrowers' strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and low risk of default. Impairment on other receivables is measured on 12-month ECL and reflects the short maturities of the exposures.

In estimating the ECL and in determining whether there is a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and whether the financial asset is credit-impaired, the Group has taken into account the historical actual credit loss experience and the financial position of the counterparties, past collection history, current creditworthiness, adjusted for forward-looking factors that are specific to the counterparties and general economic conditions of the industry in which the counterparties operate, in estimating the probability of default of these financial assets, as well as the loss upon default in each case.

For the years ended 30 June 2025 and 2024, the Group assessed the ECL for other receivables and reversal of impairment losses, net of impairment, of approximately RM249,000 (2024: impairment losses of RM876,000) is recognised during the year. Details of the quantitative disclosures are set out below in this note.

Amount due from an associate

The Group regularly monitors the business performance of the associate. The Group's credit risk in this balance is mitigated through the value of the assets held by the entity and the power to participate or jointly control its relevant activities. The management believes that there has been no significant increase in credit risk of this amount since initial recognition and the Group provided impairment based on 12m ECL. For the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group assessed the ECL for amount due from an associate is insignificant and thus no loss allowance is recognised.

Balances with a financial institution

As at the end of the reporting period, the Group has maintained balances in the investment account of a privately held financial institution based in Malaysia. This financial institution holds a license to carry out money-broking business in Malaysia. The impairment loss was calculated in accordance with IFRS 9 with reference to the default risks of financial institutions in similar industry in Malaysia. During the year ended 30 June 2025, the Group reversed ECLs of RM86,000 (2024: Nil) in respect of the bank balances with this financial institution.

31. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES (Continued)

Pledged bank deposits/restricted bank balances/cash and cash equivalents

Credit risk on pledged bank deposits/restricted bank balances/cash and cash equivalents is limited because the counterparties are reputable banks with high credit ratings assigned by credit agencies. The Group assessed 12m ECL for pledged bank deposits/restricted bank balances/cash and cash equivalents by reference to information relating to probability of default and loss given default of the respective credit rating grades published by external credit rating agencies. Based on the average loss rates, the 12m ECL on pledged bank deposits/restricted bank balances/cash and cash equivalents is considered to be insignificant and therefore no loss allowance was recognised/to specify the amount of impairment made.

The Group's internal credit risk grading assessment comprises the following categories:

Internal credit rating	Description	Trade receivables/ Contract assets	Other financial assets
Low risk	The counterparty has a low risk of default and does not have any past-due amounts	Lifetime ECL - not credit-impaired	12m ECL
Watch list	Debtor frequently repays after due dates but usually settle in full	Lifetime ECL - not credit-impaired	12m ECL
Doubtful	Amount is >30 days past due or there have been significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition through information developed internally or external resources	Lifetime ECL - not credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL - not credit-impaired
Loss	Amount is >90 days past due or there is evidence indicating the asset is credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL - credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL - credit-impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery	Amount is written off	Amount is written off

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group uses debtors' aging to assess the impairment for its customers in relation to its construction operation because these customers consist of a large number of small customers with common risk characteristics that are representative of the customers' abilities to pay all amounts due in accordance with the contractual terms. The following table provides information about the exposure to credit risk for trade receivables and contract assets which are assessed on a collective basis by using provision matrix within lifetime ECL (not credit-impaired). Debtors with significant outstanding balances or credit-impaired with gross carrying amounts of trade receivables of approximately RM11,796,000 (2024: Nil) and contract assets of approximately RM3,896,000 (2024: Nil) as at 30 June 2025 were assessed individually.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure relevant information about specific debtors is updated.

(c) Liquidity risk

The Group actively manages its debt maturity profile, operating cash flows and the availability of funding so as to ensure that all operating, investing and financing needs are met. The liquidity risk management strategy adopted by the Group is to measure and forecast its cash commitments and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate to finance the Group's activities.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, bank loans with a repayment on demand clause are included in the earliest time band regardless of the probability of the banks choosing to exercise their rights. The maturity dates for other non-derivative financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

As at 30 June 2025, the aggregate carrying amounts of these bank borrowings amounted to RM586,000 (2024: RM758,000). Taking into account the Group's financial position, the management does not believe that it is probable that the banks will exercise their discretionary rights to demand and immediate repayment. The management believes that such bank borrowings will be repaid seven years after the end of the reporting period in accordance with the scheduled repayment dates set out in the borrowing agreements, details of which are set out in the table below:

32. RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEME

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of the state-managed defined contribution retirement benefits scheme operated by the government of the PRC. The subsidiaries in the PRC are required to contribute a certain percentage of the payroll cost to the retirement benefits scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefits scheme is to make the specified contributions.

The Group also operates the MPF Scheme under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance (Chapter 485 of the Laws of Hong Kong) for employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance (Chapter 57 of the Laws of Hong Kong). The MPF Scheme is a defined contribution retirement plan administered by independent trustees. Under the MPF Scheme, the employer and its employees are each required to make contributions to the plan at 5% of the employees' relevant income, subject to a cap of monthly relevant income of HK$30,000.

As required by the Employees Provident Fund Act 1991 of Malaysia, the Group makes contributions to the federal statutory body, Employees Provident Fund ("EPF"), which manages the compulsory savings plan and retirement planning for employees in Malaysia. Under the EPF Scheme, the employer and its employees are each required to make contributions to the plan at 11% of the employees' relevant income.

Contributions to each of the PRC, MPF and EPF Retirement Schemes (collectively the "Schemes") by the Group and employees are calculated at certain percentages of employees' monthly salaries stipulated by the relevant government authorities.

The Group's contributions under the above-mentioned defined contribution retirement plans had no forfeited contributions that may be used to reduce the existing level of contributions.

The total expense recognised in profit or loss of approximately RM1,702,000 (2024: approximately RM1,836,000) represents contributions paid or payable to these plans by the Group at rates specified in the rules of the plans. As at 30 June 2025, approximately RM173,000 contributions due in respect of the year ended 30 June 2025 had not been paid over to the plans (2024: RM153,000). The amount were paid subsequent to the end of the reporting period.
